

BBC is the professional provider of affordable commercial property to let on flexible terms to small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs) in Dublin.

BBC owns and manages all its business centres ensuring the highest levels of customer service in all areas. This comprehensive management approach enables our customers to focus on their business. The fees and range of business space our centres provide, offer our customers the opportunity to expand or contract as their commercial property requirements demand.

We have a range of commercial units available with short flexible leases. Our business centres can offer a range of different sized business space and uses including serviced offices, workshops and storage units.